The University of Iowa History of Medicine Society invites you to hear:

Robert Rakel
Professor Emeritus, Family and Community Medicine, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston

William Osler:
His Life and Sense of Humor

Thursday, February 28, 2019   5:30-6:30
Medical Education and Research Facility (MERF)
Room 2117

William Osler, who died one hundred years ago in 1919, was the most famous physician in the world at the time. This presentation will review his major accomplishments and his sense of humor, which was appropriate for his day but would not be considered very humorous today.

If you are a person with a disability requiring an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Donna Hirst, Hardin Library for the Health Sciences (donna-hirst@uiowa.edu), 335-9154. The UI History of Medicine Society website is located at: http://hosted.lib.uiowa.edu/histmed/