Presented by:
Karl Kreder, MD, MBA, Professor and Department Executive Officer, Department of Urology

Dr. Kreder earned his medical degree from Georgetown University and completed his urology residency at Tripler Army Medical Center. He went on to complete a fellowship in reconstructive urology at Duke University. Dr. Kreder served in the U.S. Army for over 24 years on active and reserve duty, before retiring from the service in 2001 at the rank of Colonel.

He joined the faculty at the University of Iowa Department of Urology in 1992 and became Department Chair in 2010. Over the course of his career at Iowa, he has served as Principal Investigator for seven NIH R01 studies, including MTOPS, CAMUS, the Pelvic Floor Disorders Clinical Trial Network, the Interstitial Cystitis Clinical Research Network, the Multi-Disciplinary Approach to the Study of Chronic Pelvic Pain Study (MAPP), I and II, and the Symptoms of Lower Urinary Tract Dysfunction Research Network (LURN) Study, and numerous industry-sponsored studies.
