Monday, November 9, 2018
Scholarly Productivity for the Busy Clinician
Melrose Conference Rooms 1 & 2
12:30 – 3:30 please feel free to bring your lunch

12:30 PM Intro to developing a scholarly idea
Daniel Diekema, MD, UIHC Epidemiologist

12:45 PM Introduction to Scholarship and Research – Hardin Library for the Health Sciences
(20 min.)
– Quick overview of resources to use when your idea is first conceived? Do you have a different spin on existing research? What are the resources available to you to identify and answer these questions?

1:05 – 1:30 PM Internal Review Board (IRB) – Kelly O’Berry, PhD
– When do you need to engage the Internal Review Board? What waivers exist and who to contact when in doubt.

1:30 – 2:00 Office of Consultation and Research (OCRME) – Marcy Rosenbaum
– Evaluation of an educational program – is it the same as research?

2:00 – 2:15 PM Break and refreshments

2:15 – 2:45 PM Comprehensive Access & Delivery Research & Evaluation (CADRE) – Eli Perencevich/
– Overview of Comparative Effectiveness Research (CER) vs. outcomes based research

2:45 – 3:10 PM Institute for Clinical and Translational Science (ICTS) - Elizabeth Chrischilles, PhD, Associate Director for Biomedical Informatics (30 min.)
– Overview of existing data available through ICTS and how to access that data – other possible data sources.

3:10 – 3:30 PM Institute for Clinical and Translational Science (ICTS) Alejandro Comellas, MD, Director Clinical Research Support (20 minutes)
– Choosing your approach to data collection – which is better/ more effective given your study type?

Qualitative Research – a primer Heather Reisinger (20 minutes)

UIHC Hospital Epidemiology, Michihiko Goto, MD, MSCI