

Tubes and Lines Policy: Tracheostomy Tubes

As the carina is at approximately T6 in most people, tracheostomy tip over T3/4 is appropriate. (Position of neck is not important in tracheostomy since it does not move much with neck movement.)

It must be located well centered in the trachea and occupy at least 50% of the tracheal lumen.